INFORMATION

County Images offers a complete photographic solution, to business and private clients alike.

Whether you require a family portrait, poignant photographs of your children at play, a print of a much loved pet, or a lasting record of a celebration, we have the experience to deliver. We'll work closely with you, ensuring that the finished product exceeds your expectations, and allow you as much or as little creative control as you wish.

Much of our work is carried out on location, putting customers at ease in the familiar surroundings of their own home or garden, or indeed any other setting of their choice.

A wedding, concert or party, whatever your event County Images can give you the peace of mind that comes from hiring a qualified perfectionist, passionate about the job in hand. Our online proofing and sales system, password protected for your privacy, ensures that our professionalism extends beyond the shoot, with customer service thereafter of paramount importance. Our aim is always your complete satisfaction.

COMMERCIAL PHOTOGRAPHY

We undertake commercial assignments, and pride ourselves on the speed with which we can deliver first class images.

Product photography, for publication either online or in print, press and PR solutions are just a few of the many corporate services available, our work has appeared in a number of local and national publications.

We can capture any part of your business, it's people, buildings, products, processes & procedures, we'll work with you to achieve your vision.

EVENT PHOTOGRAPHY

County Images specialise in event photography, from the smallest party, to the biggest concert and anywhere in between.

We have the infrastructure in place to enable images to be viewed online within 24 hours of an event taking place; our user friendly website (password protected for your privacy) facilitates print orders, and the download of high resolution images, enabling those present to purchase a lasting memento with the minimum of inconvenience.

WEDDING PACKAGES

We undertake wedding photography, and will be more than happy to discuss your requirements. Please don't hesitate to contact us for a free, no obligation quote, tailored to your specific needs.

At County Images we are pleased to be able to cater for a wide range of customers, whatever your budget we have a plan to suit.

Our most basic wedding package starts from only £350, and offers the same first rate wedding photography as our premium packages, with less frills. We are often able to offer a reduction for mid-week weddings, please ask for details.

Wedding Package 1

One of our most basic packages, but with no compromise on image quality, this package would best suit those on a tight budget.

- Attendance only at the ceremonial venue (Register Office, Church, or other licenced facility).
- A series of posed (as per your requirements) and candid photographs both before and after the ceremony.
- Photographs during the ceremony and of the signing of the register (subject to the authority of the registrar or minister).
- A total of at least between 40 & 50 photographs, 7"x5" in size, presented in a slip-in album.
